

DNR Program

Indiana Department of Natural Resources
Falls of the Ohio State Park
201 West Riverside Drive
Clarksville, IN 47129

Lewis and Clark Festival - October 25 & 26

George Rogers Clark Home Site

Harrison Avenue, Clarksville, Indiana

(I-65, Exit 1, follow the signs)

Saturday from 10:00 to 4:00

Sunday from 10:30 to 3:00

The Lewis and Clark re-enactors' encampment demonstrates the way of life during the early 1800's.

Visit the cabin and learn about General George Rogers Clark, military hero and founder of Louisville and Clarksville.

Historic displays and exhibits:

1800 Period Artisans: spinning, weaving, candle making

Blacksmith and Forge

Historic Survey Equipment Display

Campfire Cooking

Games for children to play and goats to visit

Native American Atlatl (spear-throwing) practice

Try your skill with a large two-person cross-cut saw!

Kettle Corn, BBQ, great food!

Living history on the banks of the Ohio River in Clarksville, Indiana

- 30 -

News reporter contact: Bett Etenohan, Falls of the Ohio State Park, 812-280-8689
betenohan@dnr.in.gov